SUBJECT: MOZAMBIQUE AGREES WITH CONCERNS ABOUT IRAN'S NUCLEAR PROGRAM, NONCOMMITTAL ON ACTION

REF: STATE 162558

(SBU) The Charge delivered reftel demarche to Vice Foreign Minister Eduardo Koloma on 12/4. Koloma recognized that the concerns about Iran are not just the United States', rather also of the international community and Mozambique. He agreed that Mozambique, as a signatory to the Non-Proliferation Treaty, should see resolutions on Iran as consistent with the NPT. He noted that Mozambique has inactive diplomatic relations with the Iran, and has only one embassy in the Middle East, in Egypt. He assured the Charge that he would provide any substantive comment on the demarche after reviewing the nonpaper.
